THE FAMILY A PROCLAMATION TO THE WORLD

THE FIRST PRESIDENCY AND COUNCIL OF THE TWELVE APOSTLES OF THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

This proclamation was read by President Gordon B. Hinckley as part of his message at the General Relief Society Meeting held September 23, 1995, in Salt Lake City, Utah.

E, the "First Presidency and the Council of the Twelve Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, solemnly proclaim that "marriage between a man and a woman is cordained of God and that the family is central to the Creator's plan for the eternal destiny of His children.

2 All human beings—male and female—are created in the "image of God. Each is a beloved spirit son or daughter of bheavenly parents, and, as such, each has a 'divine nature and destiny. Gender is an essential characteristic of individual dpremortal, mortal, and feternal identity and purpose.

3 In the premortal realm, "spirit sons and daughters "knew and worshiped God as their Eternal Father and caccepted His plan by which His children could obtain a "physical body and gain earthly experience to progress toward perfection and ultimately realize his or her divine destiny as an sheir of eternal life. The divine ^hplan of happiness enables family relationships to be perpetuated ^hbeyond the grave. Sacred ^hordinances and covenants available in holy temples make it possible for individuals to ^hreturn to the presence of God and for families to be ^hunited eternally.

4 The "first commandment that God gave to Adam and Eve pertained to their potential for parenthood as husband and wife. We declare that God's commandment for His children to multiply and replenish the earth bremains in force. We further declare that God has commanded that the sacred powers of procreation are to be employed conly between man and woman, lawfully wedded as thusband and wife.

5 We declare the "means by which mortal life is created to be divinely appointed. We affirm the "sanctity of life and of its importance in God's eternal plan.

THE FAMILY: A PROCLAMATION TO THE WORLD

6 Husband and wife have a solemn responsibility to alove and care for each other and for their children. b"Children are an heritage of the Lord" (Psalms 127:3). Parents have a sacred 'duty to rear their children in love and righteousness, to provide for their dphysical and spiritual needs, to teach them to love and serve one another, to ^eobserve the commandments of God and to be flaw-abiding citizens wherever they live. Husbands and wives-mothers and fathers—will be held gaccountable before God for the discharge of these obligations.

7 The family is ordained of God. Marriage between man and woman is essential to His eternal plan. Children are ^aentitled to birth within the bonds of matrimony, and to be reared by a bfather and a mother who honor marital vows with complete 'fidelity. Happiness in family life is most likely to be achieved when dounded upon the teachings of the Lord Jesus Christ. Successful marriages and families are established and maintained on principles of faith, 'prayer, repentance, forgiveness, frespect, love, compassion, work, and swholesome recreational activities. By divine design, fathers are to ^hpreside over their families in love and righteousness and are responsible to iprovide the necessities of life and protection for their families. Mothers are primarily responsible for the knurture of their children. In these sacred responsibilities, fathers and mothers are obligated to ¹help one another as mequal partners. Disability, death, or other "circumstances may necessitate individual adaptation. ^oExtended families should lend support when

8 We "warn that individuals who ^bviolate covenants of chastity, who ^cabuse spouse or offspring, or who fail to fulfill family responsibilities will one day stand daccountable before God. Further, we warn that the 'disintegration of the family will bring upon individuals, communities, and nations the fcalamities foretold by ancient and modern prophets.

9 We call upon ^aresponsible citizens and bofficers of government everywhere to promote those measures designed to maintain and strengthen the family as the 'fundamental unit of society.
