E.g., these two weeks of reading passages ... are taught on this Friday.

Grey and white bands show which weeks' passages will be covered together in the corresponding Sunday school class (the dark grey Friday that falls within the same band). I.e., each Sunday school class session, the teacher covers all the reading passages that have been read since the previous session.

Dark grey Fridays are the times when Sunday school classes will be held (i.e., every first and third Friday of each month).

“Feel free to adapt the schedule to account for [sabbaths] when regular Church meetings are not held. For example, you could cover two weeks of outlines in one [sabbath] lesson when ward or stake conferences or temple dedications are held. ...

“The schedule will help you keep up with the material covered in [sabbath] classes, but don't feel bound by it; the schedule is simply a guide to help you pace yourself. The important thing is that you are learning the gospel individually and as a family.”
